PISCO DEMONIO DE LOS ANDES

ICA, PERU

Tacama decided to use the name of one of the most colorful and tumultuous character from the times of the conquest of Peru, whose bravery and strength can be compared to the spirit contained in this bottle. His name was Don Francisco de Carbajal, and he was well known for his malicious and cruel acts against friends and enemies, his cynicism and his sense of humor, all of which inspired a profound fear among his peers, who called him "Demonio de los Andes" (Demon of the Andes).
